

STRONG High Seas Capacity Development Series

The EVENT:

The STRONG High Seas project will be running a series of virtual capacity development workshops through 2021. The fourth interactive virtual workshop will introduce you to Marine Genetic Resources and discuss the path from discovery to commercialisation. These themes are under discussion as part of the BBNJ negotiations; we will discuss the various opportunities and challenges for African countries.

Introduction to Marine Genetic Resources

- Understanding the Ecology and human pressures in Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction and Area-based Management Tools (including Marine Protected Areas). (25 August 2021)
- The Socio-economic importance of Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction (ABNJ) and Environmental Impact Assessments (EIA) in the context of ABNJ (6 October 2021)
- Understanding Marine Genetic Resources (18 November 2021)
- Conservation and Sustainable Use of resources in Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction (December 2021)

A certificate will be issued to all those who participate in a minimum four of the events in the series.

Target Audience:

We welcome anyone with an interest in Biodiversity Beyond National Jurisdiction, with particular focus on the Abidjan Convention Region. We hope that the series will provide the participants with tools and knowledge to share with their colleagues and across national departments to help the countries of the Abidjan Convention to enhance ocean governance in the region and implement the BBNJ treaty in their national context after its ratification.

About STRONG High Seas

The STRONG High Seas project is a five-year project that aims to strengthen regional ocean governance for the conservation and sustainable use of marine biodiversity in areas beyond national jurisdiction. Working with the Secretariat of the Comisión Permanente del Pacífico Sur (CPPS; Permanent Commission for the South Pacific) and the Secretariat of the West and Central Africa Regional Seas Programme (Abidjan Convention), the project will develop and propose targeted measures to support the coordinated development of integrated and ecosystem-based management approaches for ocean governance in areas beyond national jurisdiction.

The STRONG High Seas project has the following overarching objectives:

1. Facilitate the development of improved management approaches for the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity in areas beyond national jurisdiction in the Southeast Pacific and Southeast Atlantic regions;
2. Identify best practices and provide support to regional institutions and national authorities for implementing existing regional instruments;
3. Develop options for regional governance in a future international instrument under UNCLOS and transfer regional lessons learned to the global level to promote ocean governance.
